

Code: HDMI/EURO

CONVERTER HDMI/EURO

Allows to connect the devices equipped with HDMI output only to receivers with EURO (SCART) input.

|                        |                                                                                                                  |
|------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Inputs:                | HDMI                                                                                                             |
| Outputs:               | EURO                                                                                                             |
| Output signal level:   | Composite wideo (1.0Vpp/75Ω) + audio (L/R)                                                                       |
| Supported resolutions: | 480i @ 60Hz480p @ 60Hz576i @ 50Hz576p @ 50Hz720p @ 50/60Hz1080i @ 50/60Hz1080p @ 50/60Hz |
| HDCP:                  | ✓                                                                                                                |
| HDMI standard:         | 1.3                                                                                                              |
| Dimensions:            | 130 x 85 x 26 mm                                                                                                 |
| Power supply:          | 5 V DC / 1 A (power adapter included)                                                                            |
| Weight:                | 0.13 kg                                                                                                          |
| Guarantee:             | 2 years                                                                                                          |