

Code: HT-344KR

KRONE IMPACT TOOL HT-344KR

|                |                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|----------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Material:      | Metal / PET                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Application:   | Krone type connectors, 110 (terminal)                                                                                                                                                                |
| Main features: | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• High durability tool, made from high quality materials</li><li>• Very accelerates the tedious tasks associated with crossover a twisted-pair cable</li></ul> |
| Weight:        | 0.05 kg                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Dimensions:    | 285 x 35 x 23 mm                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Guarantee:     | 2 years                                                                                                                                                                                              |